

Vaccines Team

More than 200 vaccine projects with clients that include top pharma, small to medium enterprises, start-ups, government institutions, nonprofits and academia

Support of vaccine projects at all stages of development, starting with raw scientific data and through to Marketing Authorisation Application approvals

Experts who include virologists, microbiologists, molecular biologists and vaccinologists holding PhDs in respective disciplines

Understanding of the aetiology of infectious agents, public health and health policy

Extensive expertise in Regulatory sciences expertise: our team includes former vaccine regulators

Development of a vision of how chemistry, manufacturing and control non-clinical and clinical development of novel vaccine technologies merges with smart worldwide regulatory solutions

We share our knowledge in support of developers so as to rapidly present developers' solutions to the market

Inception and first vaccine project during a period of eight years whose results included vaccines against emerging and reemerging infectious diseases such as Ebols, dengue, chikungunya and zika

SARS-CoV-2 vaccines

Government consultancy: Establishment of vaccine regulatory system in Rwanda

2015

2016

2017

2018

2019

2020

2021

2022

2023

2015-23

200+
vaccine projects

Cancer vaccines and novel immunotherapies

Pandemic preparedness platform technologies
Continent consultancy: Vaccine Equity for Africa

Emergency use authorizations, marketing approvals and novel expedited regulatory pathways for pandemic vaccines

Lifecycle management

Government consultancy: Establishment of regulatory models in Barbados

